From the first settlement of the city in 1630 to the present time, the city has grown from a small fishing village to a great metropolis. The city has been the seat of many important events, and has played a prominent part in the history of the United States.

The city was founded by a group of Puritan settlers who came to the city in 1630. They were led by John Winthrop, who was the first governor of the city. The city was named after the city of Boston in England.

The city was the site of many important events, including the Boston Tea Party in 1773, the Boston Massacre in 1770, and the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776.

The city was the site of the first public school in the United States, the Boston Latin School, which was founded in 1630. The city was also the site of the first public library in the United States, the Boston Public Library, which was founded in 1822.

The city was the site of the first public hospital in the United States, the Boston City Hospital, which was founded in 1789. The city was also the site of the first public park in the United States, the Boston Common, which was founded in 1630.

The city was the site of the first public university in the United States, the Harvard University, which was founded in 1636. The city was also the site of the first public museum in the United States, the Boston Museum of Natural History, which was founded in 1829.

The city was the site of the first public opera house in the United States, the Boston Opera House, which was founded in 1794. The city was also the site of the first public theater in the United States, the Boston Theater, which was founded in 1794.

The city was the site of the first public library in the United States, the Boston Public Library, which was founded in 1822.

The Convention of the Congregational Ministers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Is a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no particular authority or control over the churches.

Their meeting is holden in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, or day of Election annually; and the following day at eleven, A. M. after transacting the usual business of the Convention, a sermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent Widows of Congregational Clergymen.

Difficulties having often arisen in determining, what widows are the proper objects of the charity of this Convention, it was voted, June 1, 1815,—That a standing Committee of thirty be appointed, five of whom shall be chosen centrally; and the remainder in different parts of the State. The five shall act as a Reporting Committee, to receive from the other Members of the Committee applications and statements of facts in behalf of persons who may be subjects of the charity of the Convention, and having considered the same, shall judge of the persons to be relieved, and the proportion to be given to each, and make report to the Convention, on the first day of their meeting, annually.

Accordingly, when the widow of any Congregational Clergyman is considered an object of the charity of the Convention, it is desired, that answers to the following questions be given by one of the Standing Committee, by the first of May in each year, to be communicated to the Reporting Committee. that they may possess the documents for making a correct report to the Convention.

1. What is her age?
2. What are the number, the sex, the ages, and the circumstances of her children?
3. What is a fair estimate of her property?
4. What is her ability to help herself?
5. What connexions has she, who are bound to afford her assistance? And in what way do they assist her?
6. What is her income?
7. What peculiar circumstances render her an object of charity; or make it desirable, that she should have aid this year?

The Standing Committee are also desired to give notice to the Scribe, whenever an alteration takes place in the circumstances of the widows, who are objects of charity.

Rev. Francis Parkman, of Boston, Treasurer.

Rev. John Codman, of Dorchester, Scribe of the Convention.

The Convention earnestly recommend to all young gentlemen who design to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, to spend that portion of time in the study of divinity which learned and judicious advisers shall think necessary to qualify them for public teachers.

The General Association in Massachusetts.

THIS body was organized in June, 1805. In 1814, it consisted of Delegates from 12 Associations in Massachusetts Proper. Its members "admit, as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity, as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines, which have been generally embraced by the churches of New-England, as the "basis of their union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the Churches, or the opinions of individuals. The essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance, and usefulness as ministers of Christ."

All merchandize shipped off the wharf, to pay the same as for landing, excepting such goods as have paid for landing, (and not having been carried off the wharf,) are put on board vessels, within one month after they are landed.

Goods taken in lighters, or otherwise by water, from on board any vessel lying at the wharf, or goods taken from lighters or otherwise, by water, on board any vessel lying at the wharf, to pay one half as much as for landing; the said half wharfage to be paid by the vessel lying at the wharf.

The wharfage of goods landed, to be paid by the seller, or person landing the same, except wood and lumber, which is to be paid by the purchaser.

Goods received from, or loaded on board coasters, to be paid for by the captains of coasters; unless the same are shipped or received by persons belonging to Boston, and a return thereof to be made by the master of the coaster, to the wharfinger.

Goods brought on the wharf, by trucks or otherwise, for public sale, to pay the same wharfage, as if landed thereon.

Vessels hauling to the wharf, are expected to have their jibs, spanker-booms, and spritsail-yards rigged in; and on the north side, to have their yards topped, and to accommodate other vessels as much as possible,

No boats are to be put on the wharf; nor sand, gravel or other ballast, to be landed, without permission of the wharfinger; nor are the dirt or sweepings of the hold, or other articles which do not float, under any pretence whatever, to be thrown into the dock.

No fire is allowed to be kept on board any vessel lying at the north side of the wharf, above the T.

Vessels coming to the north side of the wharf, above the T, are to be allowed two days only to discharge or load; and, in case the birth be then wanted by the proprietor or occupant of the neighbouring store, the vessel, that has laid that time, must remove if requested.

Population of 1820, marked + not accurately ascertained, but supposed not far from correct. In the columns left blank, the States not having made returns, the following may be the probable numbers, viz. Alabama, 150,000.—Mississippi, 70,000.—Illinois, 55,000.—Michigan Territory, 15,000.—District of Columbia, 32,000.—Florida, 10,000. On this estimate, the aggregate will be about 9,671,000, and the proportion of increase about 33 and a half per cent.

AMENDMENTS

TO THE CONSTITUTION OF MASSACHUSETTS,
 AGREED TO IN CONVENTION, ADOPTED BY THE PEOPLE, AND ANNOUNCED BY THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR AS A PART OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Article 1. If any bill or resolve shall be objected to, and not approved by the Governor; and if the General Court shall adjourn within five days after the same shall have been laid before the Governor for his approbation, and thereby prevent his returning it, with his objections, as provided by the Constitution; such bill or resolve shall not become a law, nor have force as such.

Art. 2. The General Court shall have full power and authority to erect and constitute municipal or city governments in any corporate town or towns in this Commonwealth, and to grant to the inhabitants thereof such powers, privileges and immunities, not repugnant to the Constitution, as the General Court shall deem necessary or expedient for the regulation and government thereof, and to prescribe the manner of calling and holding public meetings of the inhabitants in wards, or otherwise, for the election of officers under the Constitution, and the manner of returning the votes given at such meetings: Provided, that no such government shall be erected or constituted in any town not containing twelve thousand inhabitants; nor unless it be with the consent and on the application of a majority of the inhabitants of such town, present and voting thereon, pursuant to a vote at a meeting duly warned and holden for that purpose: And provided also, that all by-laws made by such municipal or city government, shall be subject, at all times, to be annulled by the General Court.

Article 3. Every male citizen of twenty one years of age and upwards, (excepting paupers and persons under guardianship,) who shall have resided with the Commonwealth one year, and within the town or district, in which he may claim a right to vote, six calendar months next preceding any election of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Senators or Representatives, and who shall have paid, by himself or his parent, master or guardian, any state or county tax, which shall, within two years next preceding such election, have been assessed upon him, in any town or district of this Commonwealth; and also every citizen who shall be by law exempted from taxation, and who shall be in all other respects qualified as abovementioned, shall have a right to vote in such election of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Senators and Representatives; and no other persons shall be entitled to vote in such elections.

Art. 4. Notaries Public shall be appointed by the Governor, in the same manner as judicial officers are appointed, and shall hold their offices during seven years, unless sooner removed by the Governor, with the consent of the Council, upon the address of both Houses of the Legislature.

- In case the office of Secretary or Treasurer of the Commonwealth shall become vacant from any cause, during the recess of the General Court, the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council, shall nominate and appoint, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, a competent and suitable person to such vacant office, who shall hold the same until a successor shall be appointed by the General Court.

Whenever the exigencies of the Commonwealth shall require the appointment of a Commissary General, he shall be nominated, appointed and commissioned, in such manner as the Legislature may, by law, prescribe.

All officers commissioned to command in the militia, may be removed from office in such manner as the Legislature may, by law, prescribe.

Article 5. In the elections of Captains and Subalterns of the militia, all the members of their respective companies, as well those under, as those above the age of twenty one years, shall have a right to vote.

- Article 6. Instead of the oath of allegiance prescribed by the Constitution, the following oath shall be taken and subscribed by every person chosen or appointed to any office, civil or military, under the government of this Commonwealth, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, to wit:

"I, A. B. do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and will support the Constitution thereof. So help me God."
- Provided, That when any person shall be of the denomination called Quakers, and shall decline taking said oath, he shall make this affirmation in the foregoing form, omitting the word "swear," and inserting instead thereof, the word "affirm," and omitting the words "so help me God," and subjoining instead thereof, the words, "this I do under the pains and penalties of perjury."

Article 7. No oath, declaration or subscription, excepting the oath prescribed in the preceding article, and the oath of office, shall be required of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Counsellors, Senators or Representatives, to qualify them to perform the duties of their respective offices.

Article 8. No Judge of any Court of this Commonwealth, (except the Court of Sessions,) and no person holding any office under the authority of the United States, (Postmasters excepted,) shall, at the same time, hold the office of Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Counsellor, or have a seat in the Senate or House of Representatives of this Commonwealth; and no Judge of any Court in this Commonwealth, (except the Court of Sessions,) nor the Attorney General, Solicitor General, County Attorney, Clerk of any Court, Sheriff, Treasurer and Receiver General, Register of Probate, nor Register of Deeds, shall continue to hold his said office after being elected a member of the Congress of the United States, and accepting that trust; but the acceptance of such trust, by any of the officers aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be a resignation of his said office; and Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall hold no other office under the government of this Commonwealth, the office of Justice of the Peace and Militia Offices excepted.

Article 9. If at any time hereafter any specific and particular amendment or amendments to the Constitution be proposed in the General Court, and agreed to by a majority of the senators and two thirds of the members of the House of Representatives present and voting thereon, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on the journals of the two Houses, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and referred to the General Court then next to be chosen, and shall be published; and if in the General Court next chosen as aforesaid, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of the Senators and two thirds of the members of the House of Representatives present and voting thereon; then it shall be the duty of the General Court to submit such proposed amendment or amendments to the people; and if they shall be approved and ratified by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, at meetings legally warned and holden for that purpose, they shall become part of the Constitution of this Commonwealth.
